1.1 Best Script Award for Film/MV

1.2 Most Entertaining Script Award for Film/MV

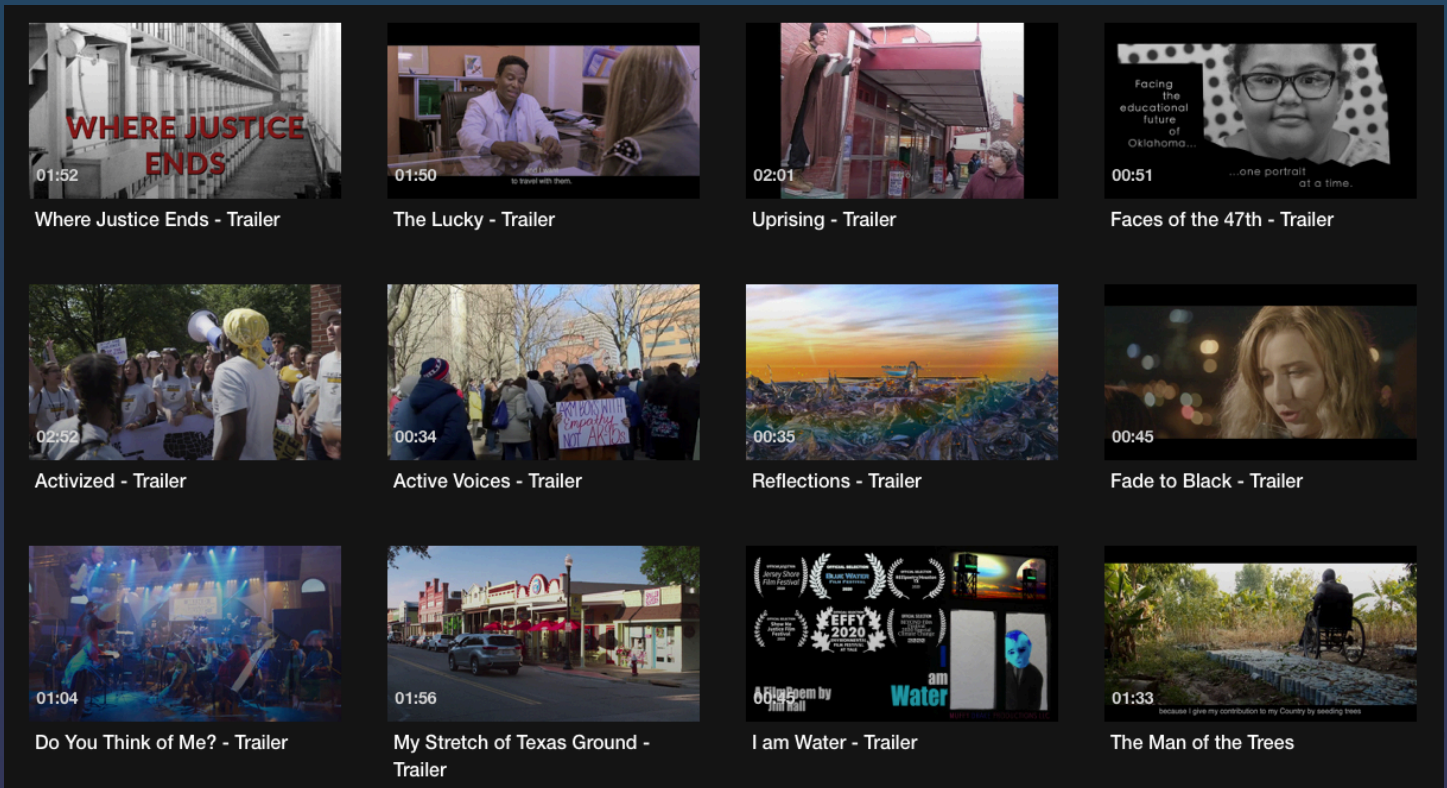

1.1 Best Script Award for Film/MV

Perry by RJ Watson

1.2 Most Entertaining Script Award for Film/MV

The Rifle by Diana Lee Woody

Why should we love our enemies? The first reason is fairly obvious. Returning hate for hate multiplies hate, adding deeper darkness to a night already devoid of stars. Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that. Hate multiplies hate, violence multiplies violence ...in a descending spiral of destruction.

Loving Your Enemies by Martin Luther King, Jr. Sermon, 1957

"Go to the poor man, ask him what he does; he will inform you, that he enjoys the fruits of his labour, under his own fig-tree, with his wife and children around him, in peace and security. Go to every other member of society, you will find the same tranquil ease and content; you will find no alarms or disturbances: Why then tell us of dangers to terrify us into an adoption of this new Government?"

Patrick Henry, June 5, 1788

"...there is no difference, in principle — but only in degree — between political and chattel slavery. The former, no less than the latter, denies a man's ownership of himself and the products of his labor, and asserts that other men may own him and dispose of him and his property for their uses and at their pleasure."

Lysander Spooner, No Treason #1, 1867
